

About me

I am Emma Gloire ShimWa, am 21years old,i have both parents ,am the third born in family of five, i live at gasabo,. am year3 IT student in UR/CST,I completed my o'level studies in 2014 at CFSG,i have also done my e'level at Inyange girls school of sciences i like reading books and novels during my secondary studies i was a member of ict club where we used to trainings in different location, for now as we are learning this module called interactive web design its good cause i will get more knowledge about designing the website and after getting that knowlegge it will help me to train others. so am the owner of seg it services limited where give all support of it services and you can simply contact asb on given contact we can do anything you need with suitable price thank you